TWO-IN-ONE RESTAURANT REOPENS IN CANCUN

Travelers often feel like two different people when on vacation: casual during in the sunny daytime, and elegantly transformed when nightfall arrives. This month, Fiesta Americana Condesa Cancun All Inclusive offers a newly renovated restaurant experience with that same sensibility. It's a two-in-one restaurant that during the day is Kambu and at night it transforms into Thai Kunn. The highly anticipated dual-purpose restaurant space just re-opened to guests on December 3. During daytime, the 98-seat Kambu offers breakfast from 7:00 am to 10:30 am and lunch options for guests from 12:00 noon to 4:00 pm. Casual dress – not including swimwear – is the preferred clothing option during the daytime. Kambu's casual sensibility includes the meal itself, which has the option of being served in a buffet style. At night, the same intimate restaurant space transforms into Thai Kunn, with a delicious oriental gourmet menu, from Thai to other pan-Asian cuisine among the options. The dress code remains casual during the evening dinner time, with restaurant hours ranging from 5:30 pm to 10:30pm. The newly renovated two-in-one Kambu and Thai Kunn restaurant space makes for an exciting dining option in a resort already well known for pampering its guests.
