NEW RESTAURANT INLAA'KECH OPENS IN CANCUN

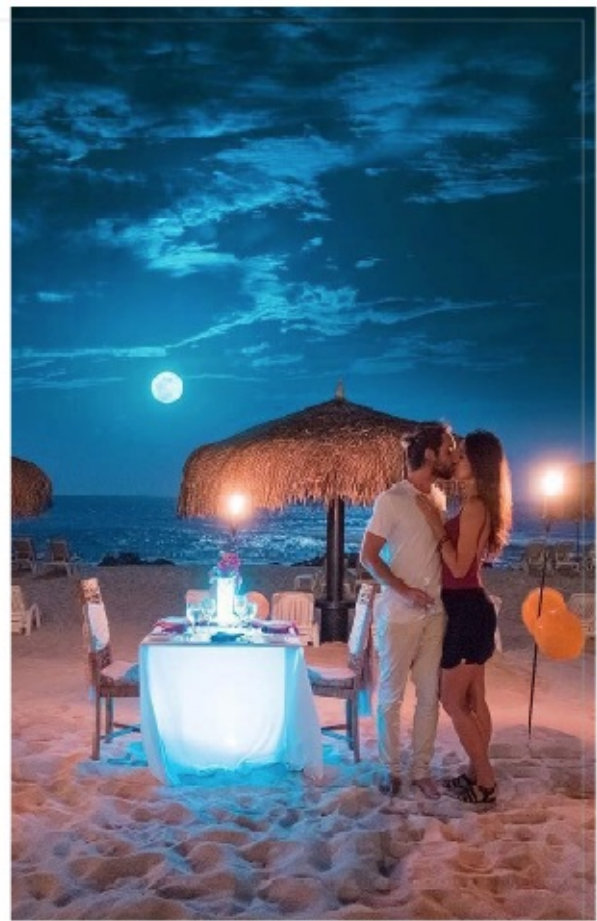

Food is an emotional experience, and no place expresses that sentiment better than the new InLaa'Kech restaurant at Live Aqua Beach Resort Cancun. Its name is inspired by a timeless Mayan salute meaning "You are my other me," a reflection of a deep connection between two people. InLaa'Kech is overseen by the Master Chef César Germain who uses high quality ingredients to mingle harmonious tastes in his creations, working with our sommelier to design exquisite pairing menus. An eight-course menu paired with wine selections runs $105 USD, while a twelve-course pairing runs $135 USD. The restaurant's ambience is cool and serene, with a calming white décor and tropical wood accents in a setting just steps from the beach. A lover of experimentation, Chef Germain uses molecular techniques and other methods to create his specialty dishes. Chef Germain's restaurants have garnered Four and Five Diamond awards from the American Automobile Association (AAA), and he is also an active member of the prestigious Academie Culinaire de France. Travelers can enjoy Chef César Germain's delicious creations and InLaa'Kech's peaceful ambience every Monday through Saturday from 6 p.m. – 11:30 p.m.
