LA COLECCIÓN RESORTS CELEBRATES MEXICAN INDEPENDENCE DAY WITH TRADITIONAL RECIPES

It's that festive time of year - Mexican Independence Day - when La Colección Resorts goes all out to celebrate throughout its properties. During this season, La Colección Resorts' Executive Chef Gerardo Rivera prepares a special menu that guests can savor on their visit, making a vacation this month extra special. As an added gift this year, Chef Gerardo Rivera has decided to give away some of his secrets, letting guests know how to prepare some of his savory Mexican specialties at home to celebrate all month long. A season favorite is Crispy Chicken Tacos, with 1 chicken breast, 2 garlic cloves cut in half, ¼ cup of onions, 1 tablespoon of salt, boiled in a pot for an hour over medium heat until the chicken is well cooked and soft. To prepare a raw Salsa Verde, gather a green tomato, Serrano peppers, onion, garlic, fresh cilantro and salt. The tomato and pepper should be blended together for 20 seconds into a smooth texture, with the onion, garlic, cilantro, salt added to be blended for five more seconds. Then prepare the taco shells themselves. There is also Tortilla Soup, a hearty choice any time of year. To prepare the broth, the Chef uses roasted and peeled tomatoes, garlic cloves, vegetable oil, onion, chicken broth or hot water, leafy branches of epazote and coarse salt. The tomato and garlic are blended into a smooth texture, then poured over an onion frying in hot oil, with the broth and epazote added to cook for 10 minutes before the heat is lowered, simmering an additional five minutes with remaining ingredients. For a restaurant-style presentation to top off the preparation and wow guests and family, home chefs should gather together fried tortilla pieces, shredded chicken, white cheese cubes, avocado, chipotle pepper, tomato sauce and sour cream.
